

Talk About Art

Look at the 'Do What – Art' section of the RE:Quest website and read what it says about these two carvings (www.request.org.uk/main/dowhat/art/art02.htm and www.request.org.uk/main/dowhat/art/art06.htm).

Talk about these two carvings:

1. Meaning
What is the story they are trying to tell? What does it mean?
2. Feeling
What are the people feeling? What do you think the artist wants you to feel?
3. Response
The carvings each have a message. What are they trying to say? What do they want us to do and believe in response to that message?
4. Now look at some other Christian art. You could visit your local church or cathedral. For each piece of art, talk about the same questions – meaning, feeling and response.
5. Create a piece of art about what you believe. It might tell a 'story' of its own. Think about its meaning, feelings and the response that you want from others.
